[39, RUE DES BOURDONNAIS 75001]

A unique venue, nestled in a 17th-century building, a true witness to Parisian history.

Over the centuries, it has lived a thousand lives: a goldsmith's workshop under the sign "À la Barbe d'Or", a drying loft for exotic fruits, and later a plumbing workshop from 1952 to 2024.

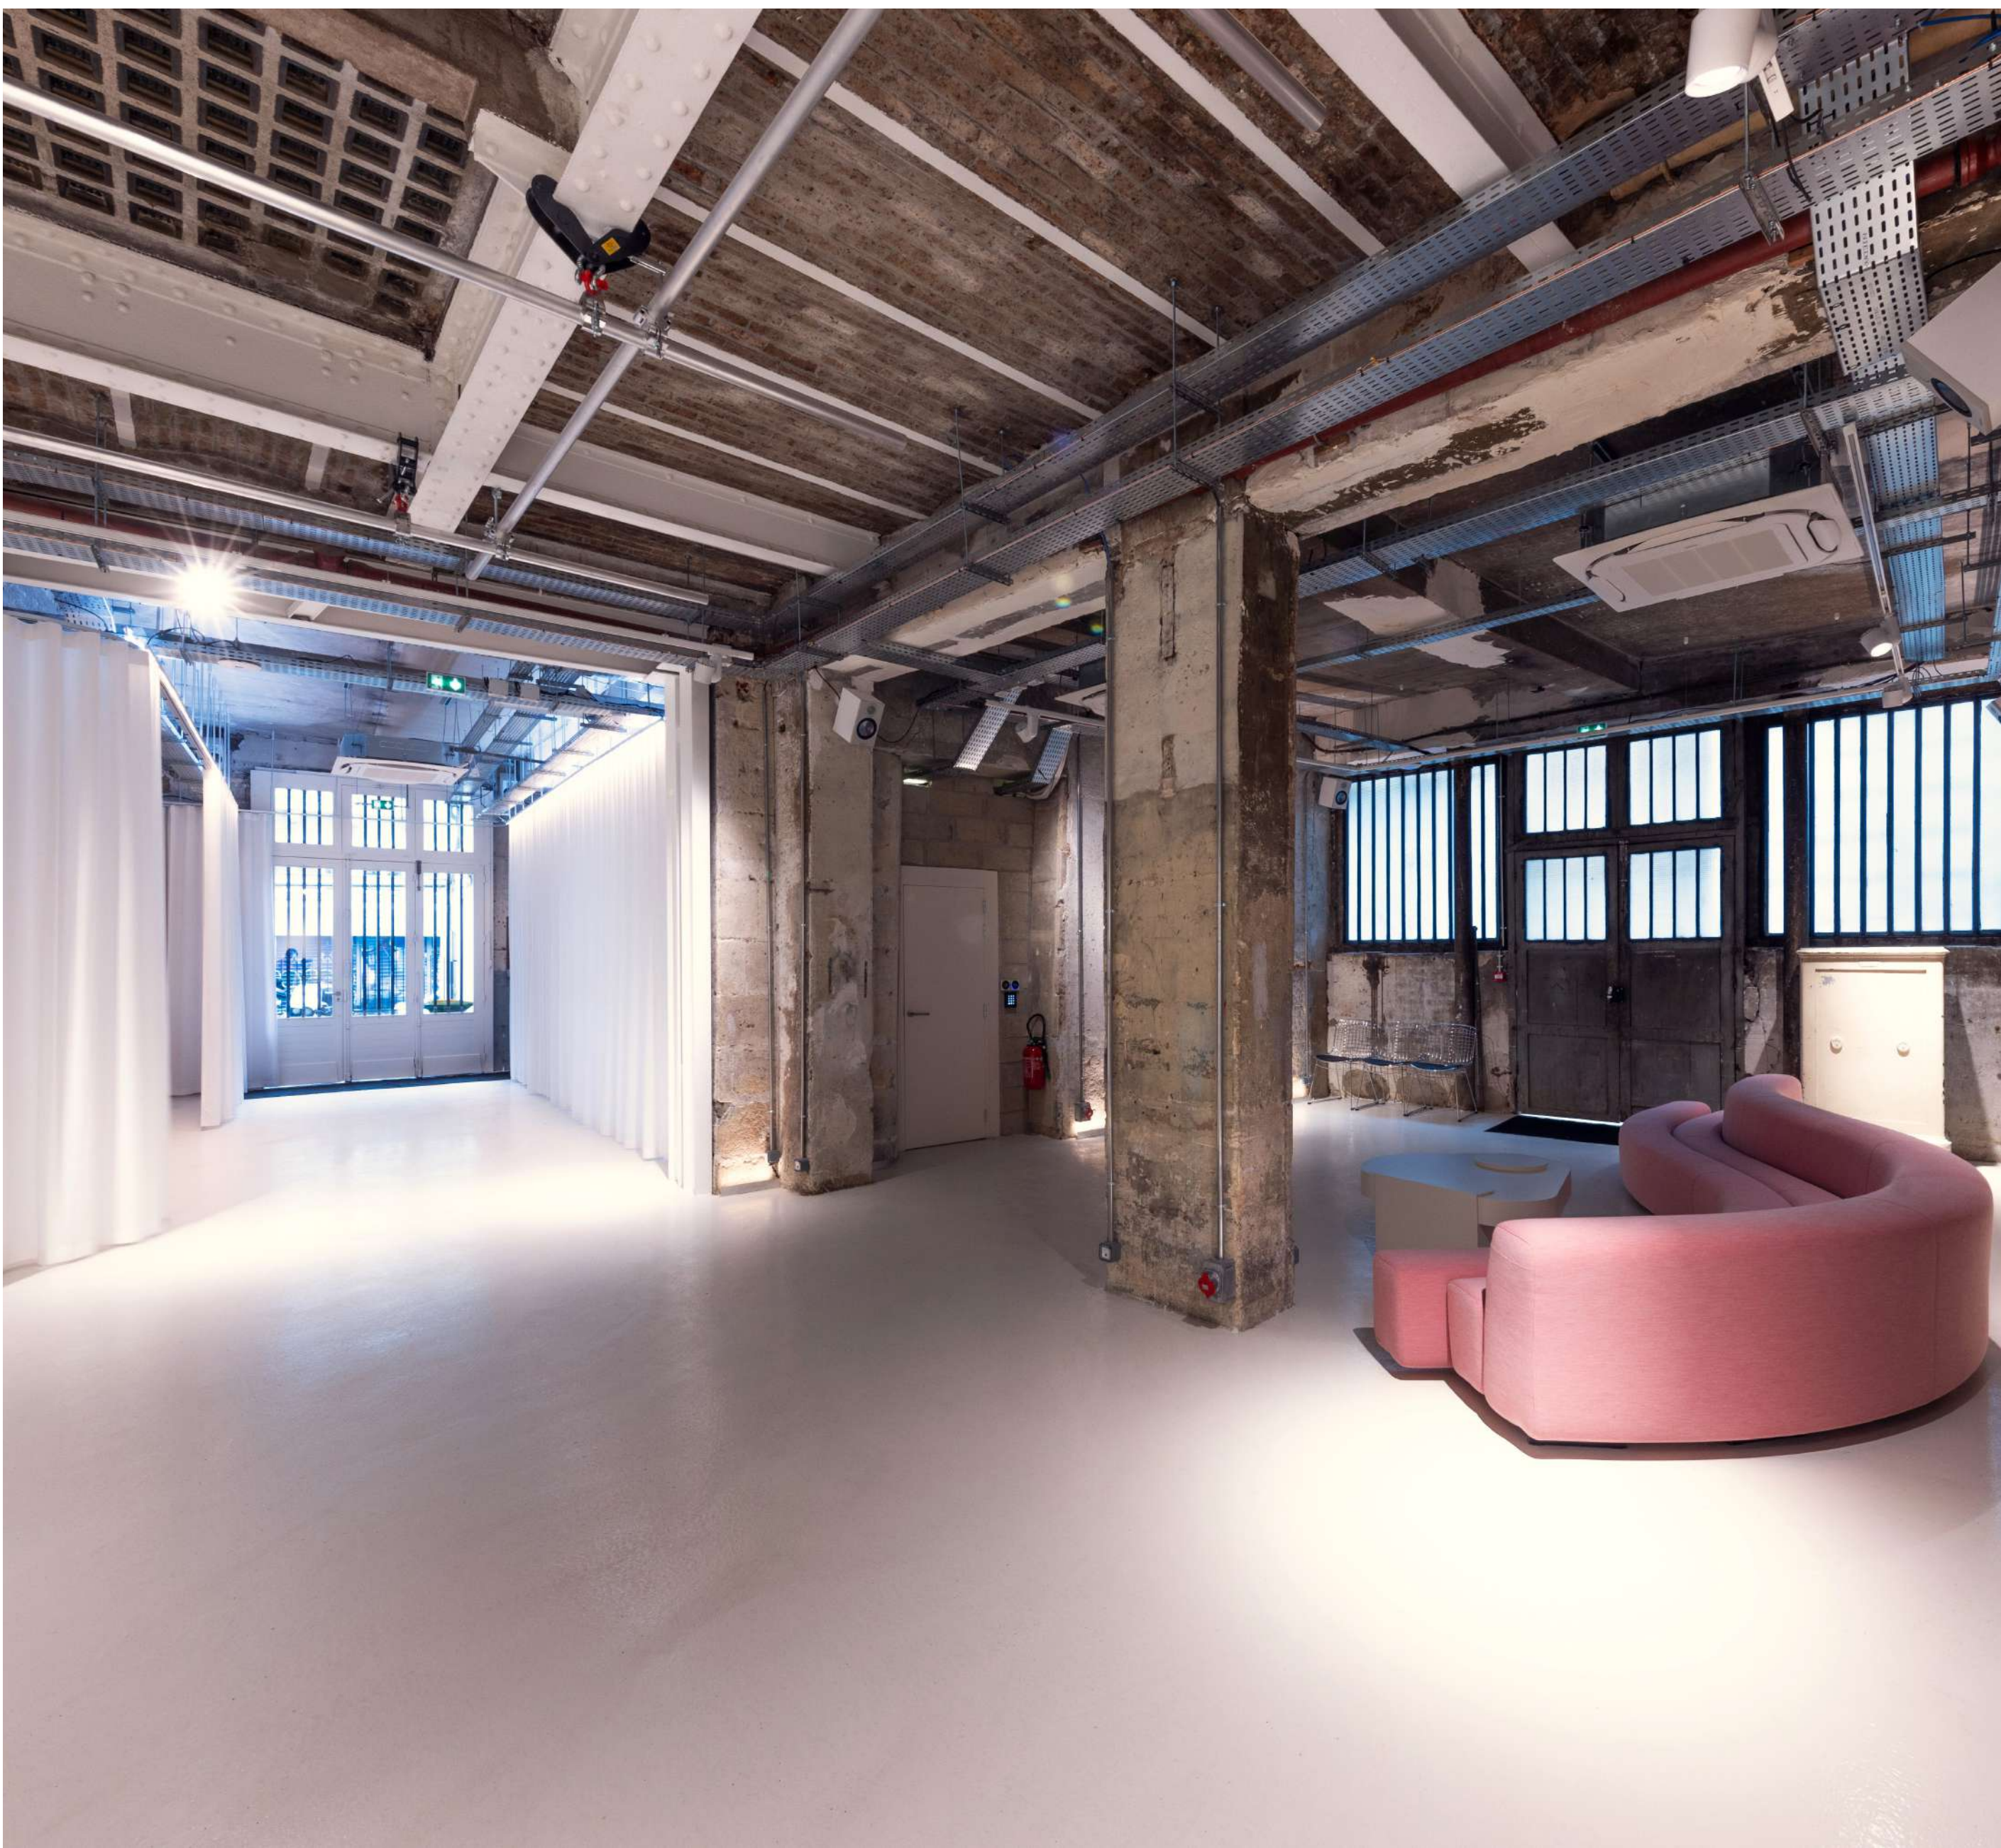

We chose the name "Chez les Plombiers" to pay tribute to this bustling, artisanal Paris. Simple and authentic, it reflects the everyday stories — the small "h" of history — that capture the soul of the city.

[EXCLUSIVE & ACCESSIBLE]

Hidden in the heart of Paris, just steps from the Samaritaine and Pont Neuf, "Chez les Plombiers" offers a truly exceptional atmosphere. Easily accessible via metro, RER, bus lines, and the strategic routes along Rue de Rivoli and the Seine, our space strikes a perfect balance between privacy and convenience.

A rare and distinguished address, designed to welcome your guests with elegance, wherever they come from.

[RAW & FLEXIBLE]

Designed to inspire, "Chez les Plombiers" offers a 200 m² versatile space that can be divided into three distinct areas.

Its chic, brutalist architecture provides a blank canvas, allowing every project—whether a fashion show, exhibition, or reception—to become a unique experience.

[A NETWORK OF PARTNERS]

Bespoke support and quality services—including sound, furniture, and recommendations for technical partners (caterers, cocktail services)—streamline the organization of your event while ensuring a premium, seamless experience.

[SMART TECHNOLOGY]

We have designed an intuitive solution for sound and lighting. An iPad makes it easy to control the installations, allowing you to adjust the atmosphere in just a few taps and enhance your events with ease.

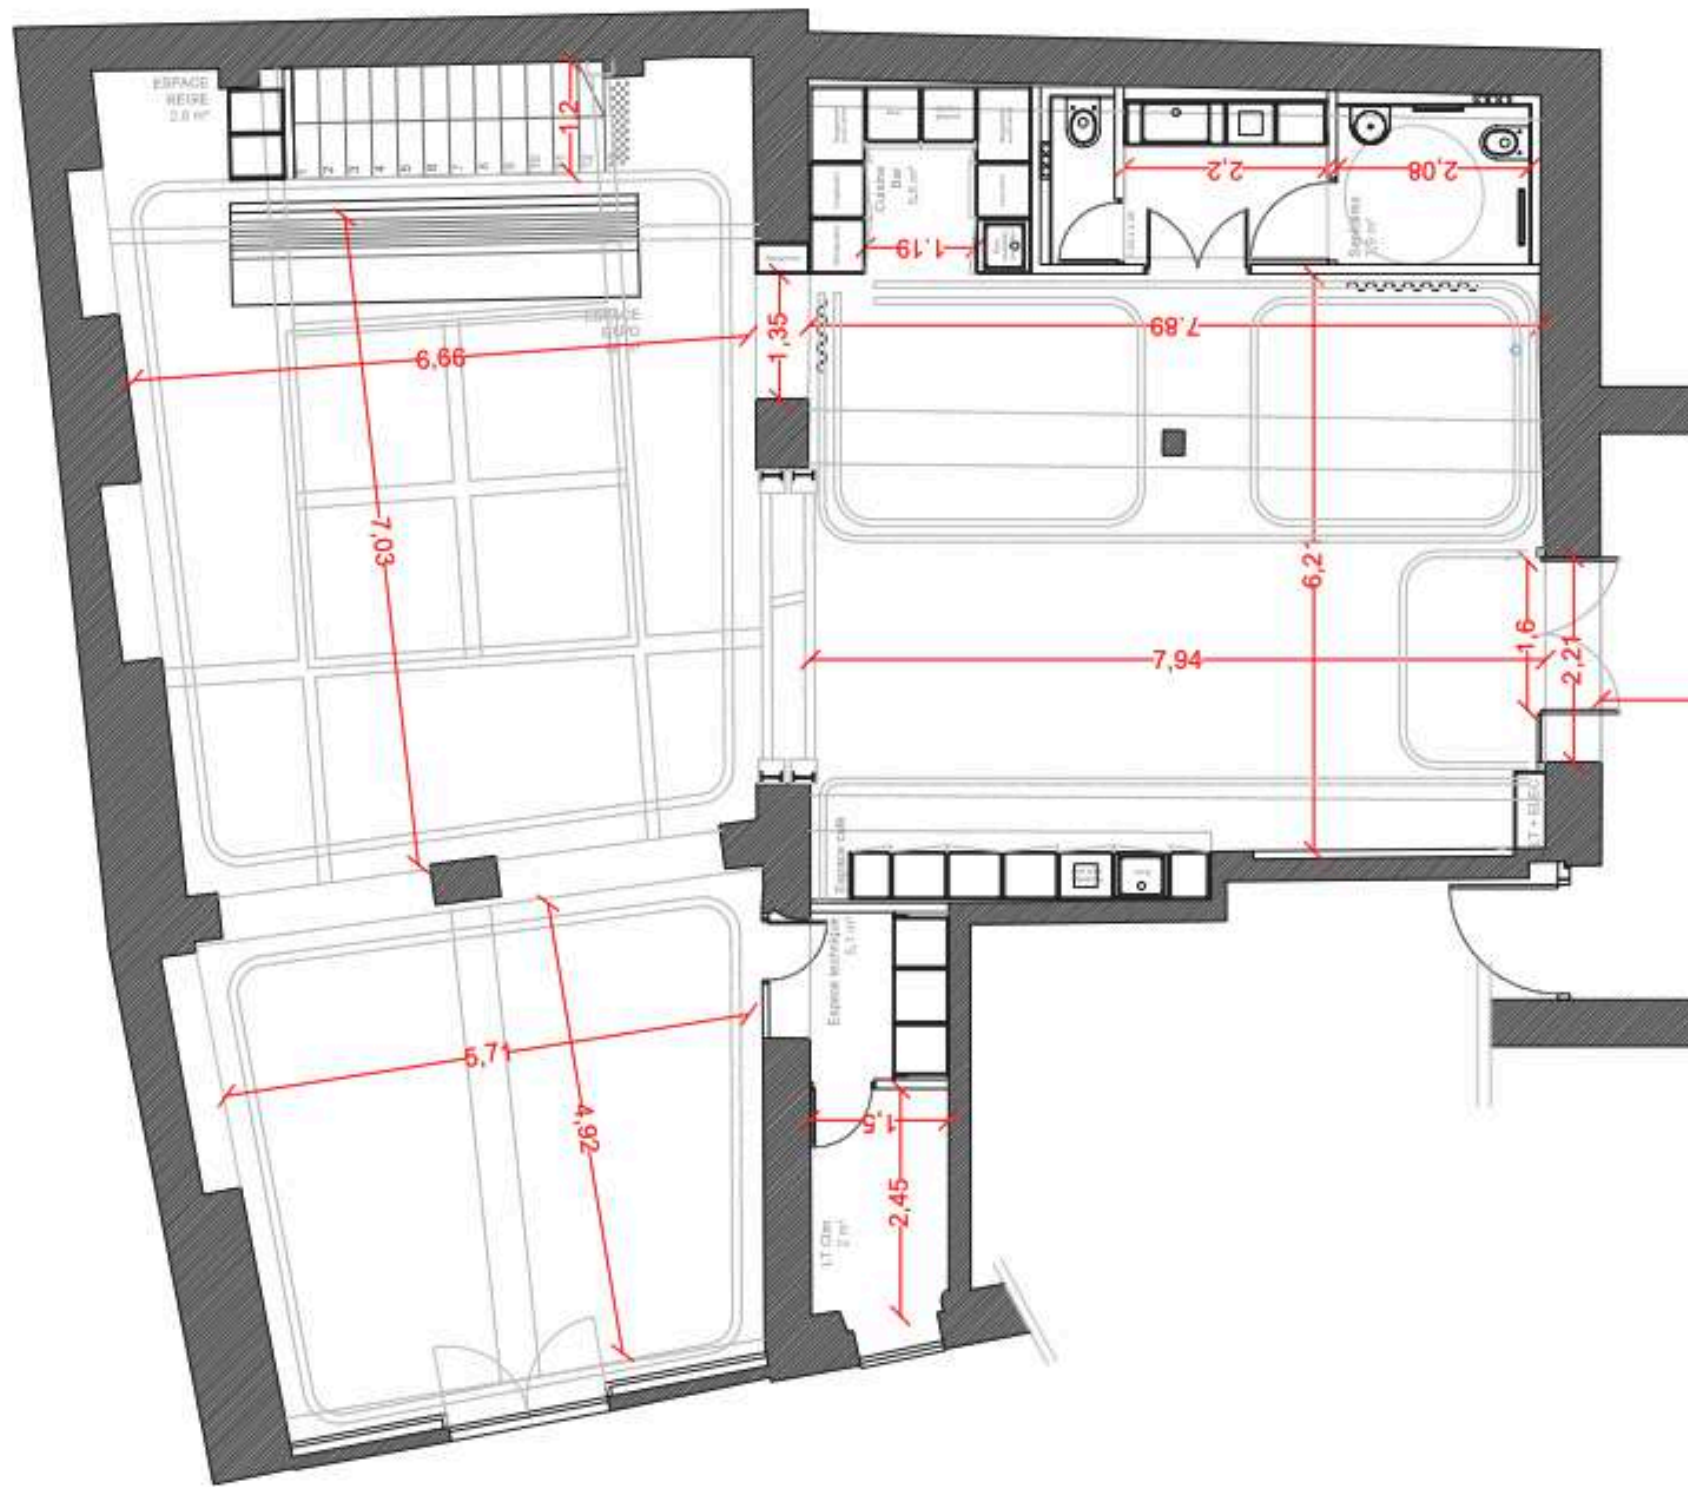

[MORE THAN A VENUE]

Paris, the ultimate city of events, is a true crossroads of culture and creativity. From technological innovation to graphic arts and fashion, the capital sees new projects emerge every week—energizing its streets and filling social media feeds.

Yet, amid this constant buzz, there was something missing: a signature venue, a landmark in the heart of Paris to amplify its pulse. We wanted to create a space unlike any other—a place where creative energy and the joy of gathering could fully come alive.

This venue is designed to be more than just an event space: it aims to become a new reference point, an essential meeting place in Paris's cultural and social life—bringing talents together, sparking connections, and turning every event into an unforgettable experience.
